WHAT'S YOUR SCHEDULE LIKE?

Look at the pictures. Who gets up early? Who gets up late?

Brittany Davis
College Student

"My classes all start at 8:00 A.M., so I get up at 7:00, eat a quick breakfast, and take the bus to the university. In the afternoon, I have a job at the library. My only time to study is in the evening, from eight until midnight. I work at the library on Saturdays, too. But on Saturday nights I stay out late, and on Sundays I sleep until noon!"

Joshua Burns
Web-Site Designer

"I design Web sites for small companies. I'm self-employed, so I work at home. I get up at 6:30 and go for a run before breakfast. I'm at my computer by 8:00, and I work until 6:00. Around one o'clock, I take a lunch break, and I 'surf the Net' to look at other Web sites. I work hard – sometimes I work all night to finish a project. But I never work on weekends!"

Maya Black
Rock Musician

"I go to work at ten o'clock in the evening, and I play until 3:00 A.M. I take a break at midnight, though. After work, I have dinner at an all-night restaurant. Then I take a taxi home. I go to bed at five in the morning and sleep until two in the afternoon. I only work three nights a week – Friday, Saturday, and Sunday – but I practice every afternoon."

A Read the article and answer the questions.

1. What time does each person get up?
2. Who works on weekends? Who works on weekdays?
3. Who eats breakfast in the morning?
4. Who works five days a week?
5. Find one thing you like about each person's schedule.
6. Find one thing you don't like about each person's schedule.

B Pair work Write five sentences about your schedule. Compare with a partner. Are you an "early bird" or a "night owl"? (Early birds get up early in the morning. Night owls stay up late at night.)
